Join us February 25th for the AROSC Concours #1 at the Desert Classic Concours d'Elegance in Rancho Mirage, California!

The setting for this year's classic is the beautiful Westin Mission Hills Resort & Spa, in the heart of the Palm Springs valley, it is renowned for world-class hospitality. Often recognized by prominent publications as one of the top destination resorts in the world, the 45-acres of lushly landscaped grounds and warm, perennial sunshine makes it an ideal paradise for this event.

There will be a marque corral for Alfa Romeo and the registration is $50 (one car, two people) and the registration deadline is January 30th. An entry form is available online at:

The weekend will begin with Saturday's drive to Joshua Tree for lunch at Charlie and Bonnie Schwartz' desert hideaway. Bring your own favorite munchies; Bonnie will provide sodas, waters and setups.

Afterwards, we will make the dash to Palm Desert, where there is a block of 15 rooms set aside for us at $109 in the pet friendly Best Western Palm Desert — just 10 minutes from the our dinner party site and concours headquarters. Reserve your room before January 25th to lock in the reduced rate.

The fun continues at dinner where Doug and Joyce McHattie will host us at their awesome adobe in La Quinta proper. Prepare for a fabulous wine-down and to be wowed by the now-traditional Dougburgers!

Sunday's festivities will begin at about 8 a.m. Awards are scheduled to be presented after the lunch break.
